The PREA on-site Audit of the Willacy County State Jail, LaSalle Corrections, LLC, was conducted on July 18-20, 2018, by United States Department of Justice Certified PREA Auditor Marc L. Coudriet. Prior to the audit, the Willacy County State Jail provided the auditor with appropriate policies, procedures and facility documentation related to the standards for review. No offenders from the Willacy County State Jail provided information to the auditor. No youthful offenders or male offenders are housed at the Willacy County State Jail. The audit was coordinated through LaSalle Corrections, LLC. The audit began at 8:00 a.m., the following facility personnel were assigned to assist the audit team during the audit and tour process: Senior Warden Aurelio Ambriz; Assistant Warden Paul Arguijo; Major Joel Garcia; Quality Assurance Manager Brian Leal; Chief of Classification/PREA Manager Lydia Villalobos; Tour Scriber Randee Rodriguez and LaSalle Corrections Chief of Plans and Operations Mr. Brian Rodeen was present during this audit as the Agency liaison and to provide insight and guidance on Agency-wide policies as it pertaining to the PREA Program. The aforementioned staff accompanied the auditor as we toured the facility throughout this audit. All areas of the Willacy County State Jail were toured including, intake, all offender housing units, restrictive housing, the medical area, food service, education, law library, work areas and the recreation areas. The auditor informally interviewed (2) medical/mental health staff; (21) specialized staff/administrative support staff, security staff, and (7) offenders during the facility tour of the facility.

The PREA Resource Audit Instrument used for Adult Prisons and Jails was furnished by the National PREA Resource Center. Following the protocols of making contacts, and checking on the posting of notices (posting was initiated through LaSalle Corrections, LLC and the staff of the Willacy County State Jail) this auditor reviewed each item on the Pre-Audit Questionnaire and additional material sent prior to discussion and the audit visit.

Mr. Brian Rodeen, Plans and Operations, LaSalle Corrections, LLC provided the PREA standards files for preliminary review, these files were used to complete most of the information on the PREA Compliance Audit Instrument Checklist of Policies/Procedures and other documents in advance to identify additional information that might be required during the site visit. - Exceeds Standard (Substantially exceeds requirement of standards)
- Meets Standard (Substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)
- Does Not Meet Standard (Requires Corrective Action)

This auditor has reviewed AD 03.23 Offender Searches, The Willacy County State Jail does not allow cross gender strip searches of male offenders by female staff, except in exigent circumstances and only after approval of a supervisor. The Cross-Gender Search logs indicated there were zero (0) cross gender searches performed in the three years. A review of building turnout rosters and interviews with staff indicates the unannounced rounds are being made as required and annotated in a staff sign in logbook located throughout the jail and it is policy if a search where to occur, it would be completed in the presence of a supervisor. TDCJ and the Willacy County State Jail policy required female correctional staff to announce their presence in each housing area every time they enter the area. This policy requirement is painted on all the doors entering the housing areas and states in bold letters with contrasting colors. The housing units have showers with moveable partitions which blocks viewing into the showers and restroom areas from the main living area of each dormitory. These partitions adequately block the view of people in the dayroom and walkways. The jail does not conduct strip searches in these areas; all strip searches are conducted in closed rooms located in designated areas in the jail.

Auditor Overall Compliance Determination

- Exceeds Standard (Substantially exceeds requirement of standards)
- Meets Standard (Substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)
- Does Not Meet Standard (Requires Corrective Action)

In making the above decision, this auditor reviewed LaSalle Corrections Policy 3-3049, AD-02.15, AD 16.03, OIG Lesson Plan (OIG LP 3201) Sexual Assault Investigative Topics, OIG Operations Procedure Manual(OPM)-02.15, OPM-03.72, OP-04.05, and the Safe Prison/PREA Plan, The Willacy County State Jail conducts investigations promptly, thoroughly, and objectively for all allegations, including third-party and anonymous reports. Where sexual abuse is alleged, investigators who have received special training in sexual abuse investigations conduct these investigations.

Investigators gather and preserve direct and circumstantial evidence, including any available physical and DNA evidence and any available electronic monitoring data; interview alleged victims, suspected perpetrators, and witnesses; and review prior complaints and reports of sexual abuse involving the suspected perpetrator. When the quality of evidence appears to support criminal prosecution, OIG conducts compelled interviews only after consulting with prosecutors.

The credibility of an alleged victim, suspect, or witness is assessed on an individual basis and is not determined by the person's status as offender or staff. Neither the Willacy County State Jail nor TDCJ requires an offender who alleges sexual abuse to submit to a polygraph examination or other truth-telling device as a condition for proceeding with the investigation of such an allegation.

Administrative investigations include efforts to determine whether staff actions or failures to act contributed to the abuse; and are documented in written reports that include a description of the physical and testimonial evidence, the reasoning behind credibility assessments, and investigative facts and findings.

Criminal investigations are documented in a written report that contains a thorough description of physical, testimonial, and documentary evidence and attaches copies of all documentary evidence where feasible. Substantiated allegations of conduct that appears to be criminal are referred for prosecution.

The Willacy County State Jail retains all written reports for as long as the alleged abuser is incarcerated or employed by the agency, plus five years. The departure of the alleged abuser or victim from the employment or control of the agency does not provide a basis for terminating an investigation.

- Does Not Meet Standard (Requires Corrective Action)

This decision was based on a review of LaSalle Corrections Policy 3-3049, AD-16.20, ED PD-13, PD-29 and PD-22. Auditor Overall Compliance Determination

- Exceeds Standard (Substantially exceeds requirement of standards)
- Meets Standard (Substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)
- Does Not Meet Standard (Requires Corrective Action)

In making the above decision this auditor reviewed LaSalle Corrections Policy 3-3049, ED PD-29, Volunteer Services Plan, the Volunteer Training Facilitators Guide, the Safe Prisons/PREA Plan, volunteer and contractor training files, and interviews with volunteers and contractors.

TDCJ Policy clearly states that any contractor or volunteer who engages in sexual abuse shall be prohibited from contact with offenders and shall be reported to applicable law enforcement agencies, unless the activity was clearly not criminal, and to relevant licensing bodies.

The Willacy County State Jail take appropriate remedial measures, and shall consider whether to prohibit further contact with offenders, in the case of any other violation of TDCJ sexual abuse or sexual harassment policies by a contractor or volunteer.

Volunteers are prohibited from establishing or continuing in personal relationships with offenders, including engaging in, or attempting to engage in, any form of consensual sexual misconduct with offenders, including forcing or attempting to force offenders to participate in nonconsensual sexual misconduct. It is a felony offense if anyone, including a volunteer, at a TDCJ facility violates the rights of a person in custody or engages in sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person in custody. Volunteers who violate the policy shall not be allowed to continue to perform services for the agency and may be subject to criminal prosecution. In the past twelve months there have been no reported violations by either contractors or volunteers.

Standard 115.78: Disciplinary sanctions for inmates

115.78 (f)

Auditor Overall Compliance Determination

- Exceeds Standard (Substantially exceeds requirement of standards)
- Meets Standard (Substantial compliance; complies in all material ways with the standard for the relevant review period)
- Does Not Meet Standard (Requires Corrective Action)

The above decision was based on a review of LaSalle Corrections Policy 3-3049, CMHC E-35.1, Overview of Sex Offender Treatment Program (SOTP)-01.01, Safe Prisons PREA Plan, and interview with the OIG investigator. Offenders are subject to disciplinary sanctions pursuant to a formal disciplinary process following an administrative finding that the offender engaged in offender-on-offender sexual abuse or following a criminal finding of guilt for offender-on-offender sexual abuse.

The sanctions are commensurate with the nature and circumstances of the abuse committed, the offender's disciplinary history, and the sanctions imposed for comparable offenses by other offenders with similar histories. The disciplinary process considers whether an offender's mental disabilities or mental illness contributed to his or her behavior when determining what type of sanction, if any, should be imposed.

A report of sexual abuse made in good faith based upon a reasonable belief that the alleged conduct occurred does not constitute falsely reporting an incident or lying, even if an investigation does not establish evidence sufficient to substantiate the allegation.

The Willacy County State Jail prohibits all sexual activity between offenders and may discipline offenders for such activity. There have been no reports of offender on offender sexual abuse in the last twelve months.
